

British Riding Clubs Exclusive Grassroots Cross-Country Training

Ride Together • Train Together • Compete Together • Have Fun Together

BRC have launched an exclusive new training initiative aimed at the true grassroots BRC member. A rider who has never really had a go at cross-country riding, but would relish the opportunity to learn how to participate correctly with instruction from some of the best trainers in the country. To include Karen Dixon, Caroline Casburn, Ben Hobday, Harry Meade, Nick Gauntlett, Lucy Wiegiersma and Jo Winfield.

- World Class Trainers, imparting their wealth of knowledge & experience
- Training in small groups with like-minded members, graded on ability
- Excellent Cross-Country venues
- Great value, between £25-£35 per session

"A fantastic opportunity to give Cross-Country riding a go, with a top level trainer providing expert tuition"

Rachael Hollely - BRC Competitions Manager

These Cross-Country training days are aimed at the true grassroots BRC member, who has never taken part in a BRC Championship Cross-Country competition or is a participating member of BE.

The emphasis of the sessions, will be correct cross-country riding, how to negotiate the terrain, riding up and down hills and into water, tackling small steps and ditches, with fences at a maximum height of 75cms. Each session will last approximately one hour. Visit the BRC website Training page to see all the dates and find your nearest venue and to download a Booking Form.

Venues have been selected throughout the UK and Northern Ireland and the training sessions will be taking place over the next few months. Entries must be made on the official Booking Form and riders will be selected on a first come first served basis. The Booking Form must be returned to the BRC address as shown below, along with a cheque (cheques will be returned to unsuccessful applicants).
